

You Are Invited To Hear:

Jim Embry

Lexington-based Environmental and Slow Food Activist

Speak in Owensboro

Terra Madre: A Blueprint for a Sustainable Future

the global movement for food that is good, clean and fair

Tuesday October 14, 7pm (6pm potluck dinner)

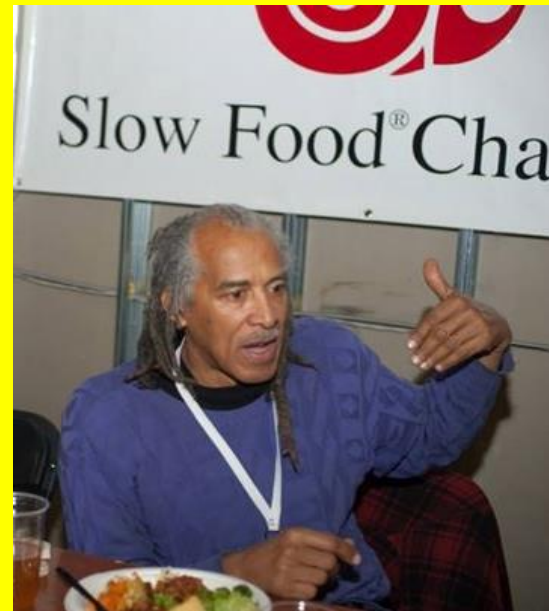

Unitarian Universalist Congregation of Owensboro, 1221 Cedar contact: Claudia A. Ramisch, (270)683-1462

Wednesday October 15, 12:30pm

Owensboro Community and Technical College
4800 New Hartford Road, Contact: Jim Johnson, (270) 686-4400

Jim Embry-2014 Delegate to Terra Madre:

Jim has been selected to represent the USA and KY as a delegate to Slow Food's Terra Madre/Salone del Gusto held in Torino, Italy, Oct. 23-27. In total, more than 500 people applied to be part of the US delegation, but only 240 were chosen nationwide and five persons from Kentucky. He is absolutely thrilled and honored to be part of this delegation. Slow Food is an international movement that involves millions of people dedicated to and passionate about good, clean and fair food that includes chefs, youth, activists, farmers, fishers, educators, musicians and ngos in over 150 countries; a network of around 100,000 Slow Food members linked to 1,500 local chapters worldwide, and 2,000 Terra Madre food communities who practice small-scale and sustainable production of quality food around the world. (www.salonedelgusto.com; www.slowfoodusa.org)

Terra Madre: A Blueprint for a Sustainable Future: Terra Madre is a transforming event; a global network based on food that is good, clean and fair; and a holistic world view that can guide our efforts to create sustainable communities.

Jim Embry's 2014 speaking engagements: 10/1-UK Gaines Center Lafayette Seminars; 10/14-Unitarian Universalist Congregation of Owensboro; 10/15-Owensboro Community and Technical College; 10/16-Somerset Community and Technical College-International Festival; November-Berea College; UK Design School; Bluegrass Youth Sustainability Council; Growing Power Small & Urban Farm Conference-Milwaukee, WI; Chef Martha Stamp's Dinner-Nashville, TN.

Jim Embry, founder & director of Sustainable Communities Network, <http://www.sustainlex.org/jim.html>
embryjim@gmail.com, (859-270-3699)